

THE ROARING REPORTER

Student Council Roars Into Action

Lee students start monthly newspaper!

Newspaper staff takes a break to pose for a picture.

Hello! At Lee School, we are doing a thing called Student Council for grades 4-5. It is fun! You get to help with the Lions' Roar and with the fish tank in the library. We also get to plant trees around the the school, go to the senior center, help with the assemblies, and so much more. So when you are in 4th-5th grade, you should make a speech in front of your class. YES! Give it a try is my advice to you. You might thank me for giving you some advice one day! You kids in K,1,2,3, will probably make great student council members. You really have a lot of fun to make the school a better place!!! Thank you and have a good day and remember keep reading the school newspaper. There are a lot of different articles like ask Lolla and Liley!!!

-Lexi Schellman

Bye!!

JACOB'S WEATHER REPORT

MONDAY
Rain

TUESDAY -
Chance of big snow storm

WEDNESDAY
108 Degrees -
Very hot!

THURSDAY
Windy

FRIDAY
Snow

JOKES FOR FUN!

Q: Why did Sponge Bob keep his toys in the refrigerator?

A: Because he wanted to play it cool!

-Kelli Pearce

WANT TO SUBMIT SOMETHING
TO OUR NEWSPAPER? JUST GIVE
IT TO MR. HAYS IN THE MAIN OFFICE!

THE LUMBERJACKS

Our school had an assembly and the Lumberjacks came to visit us. They are a professional lacrosse team. They showed us how to play the game.

After the assembly, I got to meet some players. I met Dallas Eliuk. He played professional lacrosse for 18 years. He was really nice. I also met Carl Cresmen; he was nice, too. But Steve Masters tried to steal my tape recorder!

Then I met Jackson the mascot. He had a funny costume like a lumberjack. It is his first year to be the mascot. He wanders around in the crowd and plays with kids. It's a fun job! Maybe I'll get to be a mascot someday. Jackson says he has never won a game. But he hasn't lost either, because he has never played! The mascot gets a little lacrosse stick to play with on the sidelines.

I hope you enjoyed the assembly, because I did! -Jaime Amaral Uribe

Cartoon by Rose Phillips, First Grade

Advice Column:
How To Get Your
Homework Done In Time For Conferences

1. Get your parents to do your homework.

How-to:
Come home. Throw your backpack down, and start crying. When Dad or Mom comes and asks what's wrong, tell them (between sobs) that your homework is too hard, and it's due tomorrow.

If that doesn't work, nothing will.

2. Excuses.

How-To:
a. You had sports, did your reading homework, and had no time to do the rest.

b. 'Family-Time' took up all the time until bedtime, and your parents wouldn't let you stay up to finish it.

3. As a last resort, play dumb.

How-to:
"Huh? What homework? I think I left early yesterday. I swear I didn't get it" (Weak, but as a last resort, it might work.)

Don't like those ideas? How about giving your teacher a break from correcting, and doing your homework!!!

-Lydia Gingerich

HUGGINS IS A LUCKY DUCK

The Ducks lost to California on Saturday September 29th. All the Duck fans were sad. It was brutal. The dads got mad; they started pulling their hair out. The moms passed out. The kids ran around like crazy.

On October 13th, the Ducks played Washington State. Four teachers had a bet on the outcome:

Hays bet Oregon wins by 14

Mardock bet Oregon wins by 10

Ottosen bet WSU wins by 14 (go OSU!)

Huggins bet Oregon wins by 17

The final score was OREGON 53 WSU 7. DUCKS BY 46 POINTS!

Huggins won the bet.

- Adam Johnson

MONTHLY BOOK

REVIEW

Over the Summer, I read a book called "Spiderwick". It's about 3 kids who find a field guide about fairies and how to protect yourself.

Who steals your teeth when you lose your tooth? You say the tooth fairy! Want to know more? If you do, read the book!!!!!!!!!!!!

-Sami Ingle

Halloween

Hi! I am from Student Council and I would like to tell you a little something about Halloween. Halloween has its origins in the Catholic church. Halloween originated over 2,000 years ago in Celtic Ireland (which is now Great Britain, France, and Ireland.) Halloween is also always on Oct. 31.

One story says on that day, Oct. 31, all of the dead torn apart bodies' spirits of all those who had died throughout that year would come back in search of living bodies to possess for the next year. It was believed to be their only way for their after life. That couldn't possibly be true because there is no such thing as ghosts. Well, that's all I have to share with you; keep reading the school newspaper.

ADVICE FROM LOLLA AND LILEY

Do you ever have questions about what you wear?
 Do you have problems you need help with?
 Well, we are advice columnists to help you with all your questions.

An example of this is...

Dear Lolla and Liley,
 I can't decide to wear a witch costume or a ballerina costume. What do you think I

Dear Mary,
 We think you should wear the witch costume, as it

We would like to put 2-3 questions and answers a month in our column. We will keep all your identities a secret. E-mail us your questions at Lexilulu@att.net. Make sure you put your first name only. We are so excited to start our column and help you with all your questions! Don't be shy! We look forward to hearing from you!!

Love,
 Lolla and Liley!

Quote of the Month

Mr Huggins said he is a little nervous that people will buy 500 countries. If Mr. Huggins and Mrs. Johnson get slimed, the only thing that Mr.Huggins said would be funny was Mrs. Johnson's hair getting messed up!

- Aaron Jarmer

Will Mrs. Johnson s lovely hair get ruined?

MAD LIB!!!!!!

(Ask a friend for random words to fill in the blanks to make a funny story!)

One _____ day, _____ was going _____ -ing . He/She had _____ -ed [adjective]                      [name]                      [verb]                      [verb]

for _____ hours now, and when _____ was done _____ -ing, a _____ [number]                      [name]                      [verb]                      [animal]

ran out from behind a tree! They laughed all the way home. -Ellie Phillips